

Enriching Lives & Careers in NICARAGUA - February 27-March 7, 2010

Program Goals provide participants with an opportunity:

1. To meet inspiring individuals who have overcome adversity, who embody bold personal change, and who are influential community development activists.
2. To see social justice initiatives in action by visiting local agencies promoting fair political, economic and social rights for children, youth, and families.
3. To volunteer on a community service project alongside local skilled Nicaraguans employed and empowered by your program fees.
4. To engage in meaningful conversations and reflections about your experiences, and how they matter to your life and career back home and stimulate volunteer, career, academic or retirement prospects.
5. To have a safe, enjoyable and meaningful experience living with friendly host families, eating healthy food, and participating in active educational and recreational activities.

Number of participants 7 minimum / 21 maximum

Requirements An interest in meeting inspiring people who walk the talk; openness to political, economic, and social justice issues; willingness to contribute hands-on work to a community service project; ability to learn about yourself in a cross-cultural context; positive attitude toward trip preparation, fundraising and group dynamics. Spanish is helpful, but not essential.

Preparation Participation in a phone or in-person preparation meeting and pre-departure reading is essential. What to bring, health and safety advice, group expectations, cross-cultural adaptation, country background info, Spanish phrases, travel logistics, and other details are comprehensively covered.

Transportation American, Continental, Delta, and TACA Airlines all offer flights from Canada through the USA to Managua. Groups assume responsibility for purchasing their own airfare and insurance, or assistance can be provided upon request. Ground transport is by chartered bus, micro-bus, and taxi.

Accommodation and Food Clean, safe, and simple with selected host families all in the neighbourhood of Los Robles in central Managua. Participants stay in houses in pairs and share a bathroom and a bedroom with single beds. Breakfasts and dinners are prepared for participants; lunch is usually shared as a group; bottled water is constantly provided. Optional outings to cafés and restaurants.

Service Projects Are identified by local counterparts and supported by program fees and your presence alongside our partners in Nicaragua. We have worked collaboratively with Casa Canadiense, Habitat for Humanity, Vida Joven, two Christian Base Communities; Esmeralda Palacios, Generanda Vida, and Quincho Barrilete in Niquinohomo, Matagalpa, Jinotega, and Managua.

Recent projects include renovating and painting two rooms, repairing furniture, and teaching ESL at a youth centre; painting murals; building a stage and installing water tanks at a community centre; digging trenches for a new sewage system, repairing desks and replacing a roof at a pre-school; fixing lights, fans, and instruments at a music centre; landscaping burial plots at a cemetery; creating a multi-purpose playing field; building four family houses; and, constructing one small school.

Cross-cultural Visits May be arranged to the Canadian embassy, international aid and non-governmental organizations, micro-credit lending groups, fair trade artisans, the municipal dump, schools, and clinics.

Recreational Excursions May be arranged to historical sites and to a concert, beach, lagoon, volcano, market, zipline, dance club, or fitness centre. Mural, cooking or Spanish classes upon request.

Organizer & Leader Gonzalo Duarte, B.A., B.Ed., is the founder and president of Compañeros Inc. Since 1993 he has organized and facilitated 40 community-centred trips for over 500 hundred youth and adult participants in 8 countries. Originally from Toronto, he now lives in Managua, Nicaragua.

Leader Mark Franklin MEd, PEng is president & practice leader of CareerCycles Inc. He has helped over 2000 clients from 75+ countries become empowered in their career and life choices. Mark created and leads CareerCycles career renewal getaways and an active travel program, Cuba Unveiled. In the community, Mark hosts the weekly Career Buzz radio show on CIUT89.5FM. He lives in Toronto.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Pricing Principles:

The people responsible for organizing and facilitating your safe, enjoyable, and meaningful trip are professionals with years of experience and values tailored to your group goals. Pricing fairly balances affordability for Canadians, financial viability for Nicaraguans, and leaders' risk. Fair pay recognizes local staff and leaders' time, knowledge, skill and network.

A significant portion of your money goes toward employing workers, purchasing materials, and favouring small businesses in Nicaragua. Since 2001 Compañeros Inc has infused over US$250,000 into local economies via coordinators, translators, guides, guest speakers, host families, service projects, donations, tourist sites, shops, restaurants, drivers, cooks, housekeepers, and equipment rentals.

Compañeros Inc is an educational and travel coordination company with long-term reciprocal relationships that bridge academic, non-governmental, and grassroots communities in Canada and Nicaragua. Compañeros is driven by a commitment to excellent educational practices and the demonstration of socially responsible entrepreneurship. 10% of surplus funds are donated to Nicaraguan NGOs of the group's choosing.

Pricing Explanation:

CA$700 per person payable by/refundable until November 30, 2009 includes:

- Advance organization of all pre-trip aspects
- Daily on-trip facilitation of all in-country aspects
- Comprehensive preparation resources and unlimited consultation with leaders
- Reservation assistance for all flight and travel insurance details
- Overhead expenses, contingencies, and fees
- GST (Registration # 86337-4310)

US$900 per person payable by/refundable until January 30, 2010 includes:

- All ground transportation, driver, fuel, and parking from airport arrival to departure
- 8 nights of shared accommodation at a private beach house (1x), host families (6x), and a hotel (1x)
- 7 breakfasts, 6 lunches, 7 dinners, and continuous supplies of bottled water
- all in-country guiding, translation, and logistical coordination
- Funding of a local organization to identify, budget, and plan a service project; to employ skilled workers; to purchase local materials; and, to oversee Canadian and Nicaraguan participants
- Donations of funds and/or goods to 3 non-profit organizations visited by group
- Excursions to historical sites and to a beach, lagoon, volcano, market and colonial city

The following is not included:

- Airfare and travel insurance = approx CA$800 - early booking recommended
- 1 lunch and 1 dinner = approx US$30 total
- Zipline, music club, cafés, cycling, mural, cooking or Spanish options = approx US$80 total
- Entrance visa = US$5. No visa or immunizations are mandatory for Canadian passport holders
- Arbitrary fluctuations in currency, oil, food, or airfare prices that result in unforeseen surcharges

Participants are required to submit a complete and accurate registration form with emergency contact, health, and food restriction information; insurance, passport, photo, and reference awareness consent initializations; personal profile information; and, a signed liability waiver form.

Participants must carry a valid passport with an expiry date 6 months beyond the date of return. The name in their passport must match their plane ticket and registration. Participants are responsible for ensuring proper documentation for entry/exit via countries of transit and destination.

Participants are responsible for determining their own for trip cancellation, interruption, health, and baggage insurance coverage needs and demonstrating proof of coverage before departure.

The organizers reserve the right at any time before or during the trip to cancel and revoke registrations and refund participants in part or in full should they perceive correctly or incorrectly the participant constitutes a threat to the well-being and security of the program, other participants, and/or partner organizations. Should Compañeros Inc not be able to deliver the stated program it will endeavour to provide comparable alternatives and/or refund amounts remaining after existing liabilities are paid. Refunds for voluntary participant withdrawal are made entirely at the discretion of Compañeros Inc.